Shabbat Sukkot
September 30, 2023 – 15 Tishrei, 5784

Readings for Shabbat Sukkot include Exodus 33:12-34:26, part of Ki Tissa, and Maftir being from Numbers 29:26-31.

The festival of Sukkot, commemorating G-d's enveloping protection of the Children of Israel during their 40-year journey through the desert, is celebrated for seven days, beginning from the eve of Tishrei 15. During this time, we are commanded to "dwell" in a sukkah -- a hut of temporary construction, with a roof covering of raw, unfinished vegetable matter (branches, reeds, bamboo, etc.) -- signifying the temporality and fragility of human habitation and man-made shelter and our utter dependence upon G-d's protection and providence. "How does one fulfill] the mitzvah of dwelling in the sukkah? One should eat, drink, and live in the sukkah, both day and night, as one lives in one's house on the other days of the year: for seven days a person should make his home his temporary dwelling, and his sukkah his permanent dwelling" (Code of Jewish Law, Orach Chaim 639:1).
