Kiddush Luncheon

We hope you will join us for our weekly Kiddush luncheon immediately following services. Today's Kiddush Lunch is generously sponsored by Luda and Alex Epshteyn in memory of Nukhim Natanzon, Vera Baranovskaye, Karolina Zaretsky, David Epshteyn, Roza Epshteyn, and Alex Pareuts.

Chol Hamoed—Passover Day 5

Of the eight days of Passover, the first two and the last two are "yom tov" (festival days). The middle four days are called chol hamoed--"weekdays of the festival," also called "the intermediate days." (In Israel, where Passover is observed for seven days, the first and last days are yom tov, and the middle five days are chol hamoed).

The yom tov days are days of rest, during which all creative work is forbidden, as it is on the Shabbat, with the exception of certain types of work associated with food preparation (e.g., cooking and "carrying"). On chol hamoed the prohibition of work is less stringent--work whose avoidance would result in "significant loss" is permitted (except when chol hamoed is also Shabbat, when all work is forbidden).
