נצבים-וילך - Nitzavim-Vayeilech
September 28, 2024 – 25 Elul, 5784

In Nitzavim, Moses delivers his last speech to the Children of Israel before they enter the Promised Land. He emphasizes that, even with all the difficulties of the past forty years, here they are all gathered, including the heads of the tribes, the men, the women and the children, ready to enter the Promised Land, and also entering into a covenant with God. The covenant is that they will keep the Torah. This covenant is made with them and with all generations that follow. No one can walk away from this covenant. Dire consequences await any generation that strays away from the Mitzvot of the Torah. This parasha contains the words of 'Teshuva' - Repentance. God assures us that, no matter where we are and how far we may stray away from the Torah, if we return to God, God will also return to us and gather our exiles from all corners of the world and bring us to Eretz Yisrael. Nitzavim concludes with these verses: "I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day. I have put before you life and death, blessing and curse. Choose life, so that you and your descendants will live."

The Parshah of Vayeilech ("and he went") recounts the events of Moses' last day of earthly life. "I am one hundred and twenty years old today," he says to the people, "and I can no longer go forth and come in." (Continued on next page...)

Kiddush Luncheon

We hope you will join us for our weekly Kiddush luncheon immediately following services. Today's Kiddush is being sponsored by Tikvah Spain & David Assouline in honor of their upcoming trip to Morocco. Wishing you both a safe and healthy trip!

Torah Parshat Continued: Nitzavim-Vayeilech

(...Continued from first page.) He transfers the leadership to Joshua, and writes (or concludes writing) the Torah in a scroll which he entrusts to the Levites for safekeeping in the Ark of the Covenant. The mitzvah of hak'hel ("gather") is given: every seven years, during the festival of Sukkot of the first year of the shemittah cycle, the entire people of Israel—men, women and children—should gather at the Holy Temple in Jerusalem, where the king should read to them from the Torah. Vayeilech concludes with the prediction that the people of Israel will turn away from their covenant with G-d, causing Him to hide His face from them, but also with the promise that the words of the Torah "shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their descendants."
