D'Varim - דברים

July 25, 2020 – 4 Av, 5780

This Shabbat we begin the reading of the fifth book of the Torah—D'varim. The first portion, D'varim, is always read on the Shabbat before Tisha B'Av, which we will be observing starting this Monday night into Tuesday.

The book of D'varim contains long speeches given by Moses just before he dies, while the people are about to enter the Promised Land. He reviews important events of the past forty years and blames the people for the forty-year delay in getting to the Promised Land, mainly because they were misled by the ten spies and lost their faith in God. He urges them to keep the Torah and teach it to future generations.

This Shabbat is also known as Shabbat Hazon, from the first word of the Haftarah that is read on the Shabbat before Tisha B'Av. It is the first chapter of the Book of Isaiah. Isaiah condemns the society in which he lives because of the widespread corruption and infidelity to God. In his reproof, he asks "eicha" - how did the City (Zion), which was the seat of justice and righteousness, turn to a base of thieves and murderers? This kind of reflection is appropriate as we prepare to observe Tisha B'Av, the saddest day on the Jewish Calendar.
