Ekev - עקב

August 8, 2020 – 18 Av, 5780

Ekev is the third portion in the Book of Dvarim, which contains Moses' farewell speech to his people. In this Parasha, a wonderful life of peace and prosperity is promised for the people in the Promised Land, provided they keep God's commandments. They and the land will be blessed—with healthy children and excellent crops.

In this Parasha, Moses describes what happened forty years ago, after they had witnessed the Giving of the Torah at Mt. Sinai. He was coming down from the mountain holding the two tablets:

“The Lord gave me two tablets of stone, inscribed by the finger of God, with the exact words that the Lord had addressed to you on the mountain, out of the fire, on the day of the Assembly.” However, upon seeing that the people were worshipping the Golden Calf, he threw them and broke them in front of them. God accepted his prayers on their behalf and forgave them.

There is a beautiful verse in this week's Parasha. Moses emphasized how they survived the forty years in the desert despite the lack of food, because they were sustained by the manna to prove “that man does not live on bread alone, but by the utterance of G-d's mouth does man live.”

This Parasha also contains the second chapter of the Shema.
