Shemot - שמות

January 9, 2021 – 25 Tevet, 5781

This Shabbat we begin reading the Second Book of the Torah, known as Shemot in Hebrew and Exodus in English. It is called 'Shemot' (names) because it lists the names of all who came down to Egypt with Jacob.

Last week's Parasha and Book of Genesis ended with the words that the children of Israel were well-established in Egypt. This week we learn how they multiplied and increased in numbers. They became the People of Israel. Pharaoh felt threatened by their growing numbers and talked his people into enslaving the Children of Israel. The more hard labor they placed on the Jews, the more they increased and multiplied. When he was unable to reduce their numbers thru hard work and affliction, he instructed the Egyptians to cast the baby boys of the Jews into the Nile.

The Parasha describes how a member of the Levi family marries a girl also from the Levi family. To save the baby from the Egyptians, his mother puts him in a basket and places him by the river. Pharaoh's daughter finds him and takes him as her son. She names him Moses. Miriam, his sister, offers to call a Hebrew nursing mother.

Many years later, when Moses goes out on the town and sees the hardships of the slaves, he identifies with them as his people. He flees Egypt when Pharaoh finds out that he killed an Egyptian taskmaster who was beating a Jewish slave.

While in the wilderness, God appears to Moses in a burning bush and instructs him to return to Egypt and tell Pharaoh to Let MY People Go. This is going to be a long and difficult road for Moses and the people. Because redemption is not going to come until the Ten Plagues are brought upon the Egyptians.
