Yitro - יתרו

February 6, 2021 – 24 Shevat, 5781

This week's Parasha is named after Moses' father-in-law Yitro—Jethro. He is given credit for giving Moses good advice in how to administer the people that were just liberated from slavery. Yitro noticed how everyone was coming to Moses to solve their problems. They kept Moses busy from morning to night. Yitro advised Moses to appoint qualified individuals who can serve as judges and bring to Moses only cases that they cannot solve.

In this portion we have the Giving of the Torah, when Moses was called upon to ascent Mount Sinai. He was told to mark for the people where they should stand when G-d will descend upon the mountain to give them the Torah. Only Moses and his brother Aaron were allowed on the mountain during this time. G-d then spoke the Ten Commandments. They are:

- |                                    |                                      |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1. Belief in G-d.                  | 6. Not to murder.                    |
| 2. Not to worship idols.           | 7. Not to commit adultery.           |
| 3. Not to take G-d's name in vain. | 8. Not to steal.                     |
| 4. To keep the Shabbat.            | 9. Not to bear false witness.        |
| 5. To honor parents.               | 10. Not to covet another's property. |

On This Day in History: 24 Shevat

In 354 BCE, the prophet Zechariah predicted the rebuilding of Zion, as recorded in the biblical Book of Zechariah (1:7). King Darius of Persia had given permission to rebuild the second Holy Temple, and Zechariah rebuked the people for not quickly taking the opportunity to do so.
