Yitro - יתרו
February 15, 2020 – 20 Shevat 5780

This week's Parasha is named after Moses' father-in-law Yitro—Jethro. He is given credit for giving Moses good advice in how to administer the people that were just liberated from slavery. Yitro noticed how everyone was coming to Moses to solve their problems. They kept Moses busy from morning to night. Yitro advised Moses to appoint qualified individuals who can serve as judges and bring to Moses only cases that they cannot solve.

The Ten Commandments, Marc Chagall

In this portion we have the Giving of the Torah, when Moses was called upon to ascent Mount Sinai. He was told to mark for the people where they should stand when G-d will descend upon the mountain to give them the Torah. Only Moses and his brother Aaron were allowed on the mountain during this time. G-d then spoke the Ten Commandments. They are:

- |                                    |                                      |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1. Belief in G-d.                  | 6. Not to murder.                    |
| 2. Not to worship idols.           | 7. Not to commit adultery.           |
| 3. Not to take G-d's name in vain. | 8. Not to steal.                     |
| 4. To keep the Shabbat.            | 9. Not to bear false witness.        |
| 5. To honor parents.               | 10. Not to covet another's property. |

Harvest: Collected Poems & Prayers, By Ruth F. Brin

The Ten Commandments Exodus 18-20 (Yitro)

And the words which were spoken to the people from the fiery mountain were ten.

In Egypt the priests were powerful and rich because they knew the secrets of the Book of the Dead.

In Greece the oracles revealed the fates determined by capricious gods for princes or warriors;

In Babylon the priests taught each other mysteries too deep for ordinary folks to fathom.

But in Israel there is no secret and privileged priesthood, we are a holy people.

In Israel the heart of the mystery is the ten commandments, so easy to understand a child can recite them as he counts on his fingers.

In Israel we pray for God's help when we make the difficult effort to perform His commandments.

Mazel Tov!
