בראשית - B'reysheet

October 17, 2020 – 29 Tishrei, 5780

This Shabbat we begin the cycle of reading from the Torah. We start from the very beginning—B'reysheet, the Beginning. It is the story of creation. We don't have many details as to how or why God created heaven and earth. From this week's parasha, it would seem that the two most important creations are the creation of humans and the establishment of the Shabbat.

The creation takes place in stages—in our language, divided over six days. When all things have been created the Torah tells us that God ceased from all work on Shabbat and made the day holy. God blessed and sanctified the Shabbat Day.

For the benefit of humans, God creates the Garden of Eden where man is tested. Adam and Eve fail and they are chased from Eden. From now on, they will have to work hard for the land to provide food. It's a small family, but already there is rivalry and strife between the two brothers, Cain and Abel, and Cain murders his brother. Cain is asked by God, "Where is your brother," and Cain responds, "Am I my brother's keeper?"

By the end of this parasha, the universe is pretty corrupt, which will lead us to the only man worth saving—Noah—next week.
