Emor — אמור

May 9, 2020 – 15 Iyar 5780

This week's Parasha deals with regulations concerning priests and the Sanctuary. Whatever comes near, or is presented, to God must be perfect of its kind. Priests, therefore, must be free from physical defects or ceremonial impurity, and sacrifices must be without blemish. Holiness is intended for the whole Community of Israel. But since the priests were closely and constantly associated with the ritual of the Sanctuary, special laws were instituted for them and a higher standard was demanded.

Emor, David Baruch Wolk

The Parasha continues with a comprehensive description of the sacred seasons in the Jewish year: Passover, Shavuot, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot, and of course, Shabbat. They are to be proclaimed as 'holy convocations'.

The Parasha concludes with describing the constant duty of the priests to make sure that the lamp is kept perpetually alight and the showbread regularly arranged—even during the special seasons of the year mentioned previously when the attention and energies of those who served in the Temple were otherwise taxed to the full.

Happy Mother's Day!

The American holiday of Mother's Day has a strong connection to the values espoused in the Torah. Twice, the Torah commands that we honor our parents, once during the giving of the Torah on Har Sinai (Mount Sinai) and once when Moshe recounts the giving of the Torah.

Honor your father and your mother in order that your days will be long on the earth that your God gives to you.
(Shemot 20:12)

Honor your father and your mother as ' ה your God commanded you in order that your days will be long and in order that it will be good for you on the earth that ' ה your God gives to you.
(Devarim 5:16)

Mi Shebeirach—Prayer of Healing

Mi shebeirach avoteinu
(May God Who blessed our Patriarchs)
M'kor habracha l'imoteinu
(The Source of blessing to our Matriarchs)

May the source of strength
who blessed the ones before us,
Help us find the courage to make our lives a blessing
And let us say: Amen.

Mi shebeirach imoteinu
(May God Who blessed our Matriarchs)
M'kor habracha l'avoteinu
(The Source of blessing to our Patriarchs)

Bless those in need of healing with refuah sh'leimah
The renewal of body, the renewal of spirit
And let us say: Amen.
