שבועי של פסח — Passover Day 7
April 3, 2021 – 21 Nisan 5781

On the Seventh Day of Passover we read how on this day the sea split for the Children of Israel and drowned the pursuing Egyptians, and the "Song at the Sea" sung by the people upon their deliverance (Exodus 13:17-15:26).

In addition to the description of the parting of the sea, this Parasha also includes the story of the Manna that will be their food for the next forty years. One of the qualities of the Manna is that you could prepare it in any way you wish. For some it was wonderful as you could pretend that it is one of your favorite foods, and it would feel and taste like that food. For others it was too boring having the same thing, day after day. In the course of their journey, they will complain that it is dry and rotten. Like everything in life, some people think they got a lemon, while others make lemonade and are very happy with it.

השמיני של פסח— Eighth Day of Passover

On the Eighth Day of Passover we read Deuteronomy 15:19-16:17. Like the reading for the second day, it catalogs the annual cycle of festivals, their special observances, and the offerings brought on these occasions to the Holy Temple in Jerusalem.

The Eighth Day's special connection with the Future Redemption is reflected in the Haftarah (reading from the Prophets) for this day--Isaiah 10:32-12:6.

Yizkor

The remembrance prayer for departed loved ones, is recited today after the morning reading of the Torah.
