תזריע-מצורע - Tazria-Metzora

April 17, 2021 – 5 Iyar 5781

The Parshah of Tazria continues the discussion of the laws of tumah v'taharah, ritual impurity and purity. A woman giving birth should undergo a process of purification, which includes immersing in a mikvah (a naturally gathered pool of water) and bringing offerings to the Holy Temple. All male infants are to be circumcised on the eighth day of life.

The Parshah of Metzora talks about certain skin disease — Tzaraat — (often mistranslated as “leprosy”) is a supra-natural plague, which also can afflict garments. If white or pink patches appear on a person’s skin (dark red or green in garments), a kohen is summoned. Judging by various signs, such as an increase in size of the afflicted area after a seven-day quarantine, the kohen pronounces it tame (impure) or tahor (pure). If the Kohen agrees, the process of purification commences. That process involves a sacrifice, immersion in a Mikveh and the sprinkling of special purification water. The Torah also discusses Tzara-at that can afflict a home—a type of mold—and how to purify that home. A person afflicted with tzaraat must dwell alone outside of the camp (or city) until he is healed. The afflicted area in a garment is removed; if the tzaraat spreads or recurs, the entire garment must be burned.

Clean Speech MN

On April 1, the Twin Cities Jewish community will embark on a 30-day effort to encourage thoughtful conversation and less divisive rhetoric. Clean Speech Minnesota, spearheaded by Minneapolis Jewish Federation in collaboration with nearly 30 other local Jewish organizations, aims to educate, inform, and raise awareness around the time-honored ideal that words have profound power to foster positivity and growth in the community. The program is based on the successful Clean Speech Colorado campaign.
