Kiddush Lunch

Today's Kiddush luncheon is sponsored by Olga and Michael Margulis in honor of their son, Benjamin Margulis' Bar Mitzvah. Mazel Tov to the whole family!! Kiddush Lunch will begin immediately following services.

Parshat Chol Hamoed Sukkot

On Shabbat Hol Hamoed Sukkot, we read from the Book of Exodus, Chapters 33 and 34. This happened after the incident of the Golden Calf. Moses had broken the Tablets of the Commandments. He begs God to forgive the people. His request is granted as God commands him to prepare two new tablets and return to Mount Sinai. God will inscribe the new tablets with the same words that were on the first tablets.

The Covenant between God and the Jewish people is renewed, and the people are warned not to worship the idols of the Amorites, Canaanites and the other nations whose land they will be conquering.

The reading concludes with the Mitzvah of observing Shabbat and the three Pilgrimage festivals—Pesach, Shavuot and Sukkot.

Mazel Tov!
