נצבים - Nitzavim

September 28, 2019—28 Elul 5779

In Nitzavim, Moses delivers his last speech to the Children of Israel before they enter the Promised Land. He emphasizes that, even with all the difficulties of the past forty years, here they are all gathered, including the heads of the tribes, the men, the women and the children, ready to enter the Promised Land, and also entering into a covenant with God.

The covenant is that they will keep the Torah. This covenant is made with them and with all generations that follow. No one can walk away from this covenant. Dire consequences await any generation that strays away from the Mitzvot of the Torah.

This parasha contains the words of 'Teshuva' - Repentance. God assures us that, no matter where we are and how far we may stray away from the Torah, if we return to God, God will also return to us and gather our exiles from all corners of the world and bring us to Eretz Yisrael.

Nitzavim concludes with these verses: "I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day. I have put before you life and death, blessing and curse. Choose life, so that you and your descendants will live."

This Day in Jewish History— 28 Elul

In 1849, the first synagogue was dedicated in Cape Town, South Africa, called Tikvat Israel -- "Hope of Israel," referring to the Cape of Good Hope. The Jewish community was characterized by a deep attachment to traditional Jewish values and strong bonds with Israel. The Jewish population of South Africa reached a peak of 120,000 in the early 1970s, but with political turmoil and the dissolution of Apartheid, tens of thousands of Jews left to settle in Israel, Australia and the U.S. Tikvat Israel synagogue -- South Africa's first -- is still standing today.
